

World leaders are converging on Rome today in preparation for the funeral of Pope John Paul II. As a life-long champion of human rights and inspiration to millions around the world, we are deeply saddened by his passing. Click here to read this week's congressional resolution honoring the life of John Paul II.